

8. Twenty-six Sheep

♩ = 78

8
Twen-ty-six sheep. Who can lift a hand a-gainst Le - vi - a - than?

8
Twen-ty-six sheep.——

12

Twen-ty-six sheep. We will not for-get this day of bat-tle.. We will not try it a - gain.

Twen-ty-six sheep.——

BART: Charlise, dear, you carry such a load. Let us lighten it for you.
 CHARLISE: Of what do you speak?
 BART: Sigrid and I will manage the arrangements for the sheep. Won't we, dearest?
 SIGRID: Ahh, darling, that does sound like a bit of work.
 BART: Nonsense! What do you say?
 CHARLISE: If you would do that, I would be most grateful. Come, children, I have a headache.

17

7

SIGRID: Lovey! Why should we want to handle all those mangy sheep!
 BART: Tut-tut, biscuit. We needn't actually touch the sheep. We merely make the arrangement.
 If we craft the system, we can also rig the system...
 SIGRID: Ohhh!!!
 BART: That's right...

25

3 2 2

33 BART: SIGRID:

I see an op - por - tun - i - ty... To ex - ploit our com - mun - i - ty... These dear peo - ple, so

38 BOTH: (LAUGHTER!!!)

4 3

blind they'll be... But our purs - es, so lined they'll be!

8. Twenty-six Sheep

48 GEO & MARA: MARA: GEORGE:

Day e - le-ven! It took all night to tear the ropes a - sun-der. The

51 MARA: GEORGE:

ban-dits took our stuff... My wea-pons And my pan! But it's a new day; We can move

54 MARA: GEORGE: BOTH:

be-yond our blun-der! We have our health And our strength And we have a plan! When I was with the trav' - ling en-ter-tain-ers (May they rest in peace.) We kept a co-vert stash of sup-plies not far a-way. I think I can find it!

57 MARA:

61

65 GEORGE:

Will won-ders ne - ver cease?

68 CHORUS:

p Twen - ty - two sheep. p